

Central Michigan University

An innovator and leader in quality degree programs tailored to the unique needs of working students, CMU is a recognized, accredited state university with over 35 satellite locations across North America offering online and classroom-based programs. CMU is known for its welcoming staff and faculty, customizable programs, eight-week terms and alternative paths to credit including possible credit for work, life or training experiences.

Programs available at the Fort Riley location

CMU's Master of Science in Administration degree provides individuals with a solid core of administrative and leadership courses and a wide selection of concentrations to meet their individual career goals. Students graduate with the knowledge and skills necessary to lead effectively in various corporate, non-profit, military and agency settings.

The MSA is a two-year accelerated degree with no GMAT or GRE required. Fort Riley currently offers the general administration, human resources administration, leadership or public administration concentrations face-to-face at our local center. An additional ten concentrations including project management, leadership and health services administration are available online.

CMU has bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees online all backed by the same strong sense of community and support you'll find here at Fort Riley. Visit cmich.edu/global for information on all of our programs and services or call CMU's Fort Riley location at 785-784-4402.